

National Landscape Conservation System.

The following Congressional, Presidential, or other designated areas are component areas of the National Landscape Conservation System .

National Monument: This designation is made either by Presidential Proclamation under the authority of the Antiquities Act, or by an Act of Congress signed into law by the President.

National Conservation Area.: Designated by an act of Congress and signed into law by the President.

Wilderness: Designated by and act of Congress and signed into law by the President. These areas are managed in accordance with the Wilderness Act.

Wilderness Study Area: Designated in accordance with Section 603 of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act or administratively as a result of a land-use planning decision.

Wild and Scenic River: Designated by an act of Congress and signed into law by the President, or through the recommendation of a Governor and administrative action by the Secretary. Designated rivers often cross several jurisdictions. Portions of designated wild or scenic rivers located on lands administered by the Bureau of Land Management are components of the NLCS. This component is managed in accordance with the requirements of the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act.

National Historic Trail: Designated by an act of Congress and signed into law by the President. Portions of National Historic Trails located on lands administered by the Bureau of Land Management are components of the NLCS. This component is managed in accordance with the National Trails System Act.

National Scenic Trail: Designated by an act of Congress and signed into law by the President. Portions of National Scenic Trails located on lands administered by the Bureau of Land Management are components of the NLCS. This component is managed in accordance with the requirements of the National Trails System Act.

California Desert Conservation Area: Designated by an act of Congress and signed into law by the President.

Headwaters Forest Reserve: Designated by an act of Congress and signed into law by the President.

Steens Mountain Cooperative Management Protection Area: Designated by an act of Congress and signed into law by the President.